

Oregon Private College Week

July 29, 2019 - August 2, 2019

THE COUNTDOWN IS ON!

Oregon Private College Week is just 3 weeks away!

Already registered?

You get a gold star! Thank you and we can't WAIT to see you! Each college you've signed-up to visit will send you a confirmation email with details, such as driving directions and parking instructions. Feel free to contact the Admissions Offices directly with any questions.

Feeling sloth-like and haven't registered yet?

No problem -- there's still time! Head on over to the Oregon Private College Week registration webpage and click on the "Register Now" button beneath each college you'd like to visit.

... And, if your sloth-ness gets the best of you and you just don't get around to registering in advance, please note that the awesome admissions staff at each college will gladly accept walk-ins throughout the week (though they'd really appreciate a phone call from you ahead of time to confirm session availability!).

If you're new to our email list or haven't had the chance to review our "Plan Your Visit" webpage yet, be sure to check it out!

We've posted several resources for you there, such as the "Top 5 Questions You Should Ask at OPCW," an infographic entitled "Choosing the Right College For You," and a printable map of all the OPCW host institutions.
